Note.

Please see 1st Councillor's remarks on Timkur Dy Commr's letter no. 4458, 19.11.00 requesting sanction to the disbursement of full pay to Narasimhachar & Narain Rao, who were appointed as Dy Clerk & 3^d clerk respectively in place of Venkoba Rao & Gopalarambha Modak who were granted privilege leave for 3 months preparatory to their retirement.

1. Under Article 233(b) of the Service Regulations, two officers cannot simultaneously count service in respect of the same office -

2. In the case under reference, Narasimhachar and Narain Rao cannot draw ^{the} full pay of the appointments of Dy Clerk & 3^d clerk, respectively, till the appointments actually fall vacant, i.e. after the expiry of the have granted to the perma-nent incumbents -

3. Article 191. further di-rects that no extra expense may be imposed on the State in respect to the privi-lege leave of an officer whose pay is less than Rs. 100, & who is allowed privilege
leave for more than one month at a time - But Article 89. empowers Govt.
to sanction acting promotions
to fill up temporary vacancies which last for a long time ~~and~~ consequent ~~and~~ upon an officer proceeding on privilege or other leave -

4. The Compt^r is of opinion.
that the effect of granting privilege leave prior to retirement being a special concession to a retiring officer, he is to be considered as not out of employ during the period of his leave, & that the place
really falls vacant

only after the expiry of his leave -

5. On a similar question which arose in the Hassan District, the Secretary was of opinion that "the
"grant of leave to retiring
"officials does not mean
"that their places should
"be left vacant until such
"leave expires, that it is a
"Special Concession to them
"I should not affect the
"work appertaining to them
"appointments, & that it
"is usual to fill up the
"latter at once".

Sanction was accordingly conveyed to the Dispen-sary of full pay to these officials -

Tumkur 19th November 1900

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

The retirement of Venkoba Rao
deputy clerk and Gopabharutha Nadiah, 34th clerk of the District office, was sanctioned in Government proceedings No. $\frac{7548-9}{A. 2531}$ dated 23rd April 1900, and each of them was granted privilege leave for 3 months as a concession, prior to retirement in Government proceedings No. $\frac{8005-6}{A. 2724}$ and Bangalore, 198-99 dated 12th May 1900, and 23rd June 1900, respectively.
The appointment of Narasimha Chari B.A. as deputy clerk in the place of Venkoba Rao and of Nagala Narain Rao B.A. as 34th clerk in the room of Gopabharutha Nadiah, was confirmed by Government in proceedings

+ 81/13213-13th Proceedings Nos $\frac{8325-6}{R 2856}$ and $\frac{8431-3}{R 2906}$ dated 7th June 1900. dated 23rd and 29 May 1900, respectively.

2. In auditing the District Office's Establishment pay bill for May and June last, the Comptroller has objected to pass the pay of Narasimhachari and Nagala Narain Rao on the ground that the sanctioned scale has been exceeded, as the places in question really fall vacant only after the expiry of the period of the privilege leave granted to the men who were retired. I append copy of the Comptroller's remarks for information.

3. I beg to submit that the grant of privilege leave to the officials in question previous to their retirement being a special concession, the ordinary rules of the Service Regulations do not apply to their locum tenens, who were permanently appointed to their posts in the interests of Government work, and to request that Government may be pleased to instruct the Comptroller to to withdraw his objection, which it may be noted, has been made for the first time only in regard to the two officials above named.

I have the honor to be,

Letter No. 445, dated 19th November 1900, from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur district, in re disbursement of full pay to Narasimhachar and Magala Narain Rao, who were appointed deputy clerk and 3rd clerk, respectively, in the District office, in place of Venkoba Rao and Gopalaratna Mudaliar who were granted privilege leave for three months from 1st May and 1st June 1900, respectively, preparatory to retirement.

No. 5041-80—R. 1706, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH JANUARY 1901.

ORDER THEREON—The retirement of Venkoba Rao, deputy clerk, and of Gopalaratna Mudaliar, 3rd clerk, having been sanctioned in Government Proceedings No. 7548-9—R. 2531, dated 22rd April 1900, they were granted privilege leave for three months from 1st May and 1st June 1900, respectively, their retirement taking effect from date of expiry of the leave; and Narasimhachar, deputy accountant of the District office, and Magala Narain Rao, clerk, Dewan's office, were appointed deputy clerk and 3rd clerk from 1st May and 1st June 1900, respectively, and full pay was disbursed to them. The Comptroller is of opinion that the effect of granting privilege leave prior to retirement being a special concession to a retiring officer, he is to be considered as not out of employ during the period of his leave, that the place really falls vacant only after the expiry of his leave, and that, therefore, the full pay already disbursed to Narasimhachar and Narain Rao should be recovered from them or Government sanction obtained thereto.

2. In agreeing with the Comptroller, the Government observe that the Deputy Commissioner acted irregularly in making the appointments in question so as to give effect to them before the actual retirement (after the expiration of the privilege leave) of Venkoba Rao and Gopalaratna Mudaliar, and incurring additional cost without the previous sanction of Government; with the foregoing remarks Government authorize the disbursement of full pay to Narasimhachar and Narain Rao, as a special case.

3. A copy of these Proceedings will be communicated to all Heads of Departments and Deputy Commissioners of districts with the intimation that Government expect a strict adherence to the Codal Rules in matters of this kind.
